

The Fcc should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. Please leave Indiana alone. We are retired but working full time. Because we are at home such a short time it is wonderful not to have to answer telemarketing phone calls sometimes three and four times each evening. Thanks